

Sydney Searchwell-Simpson

spirituality | ecology | cultural transformation | performative storytelling | domination
consciousness | relational (r)evolution

About Sydney

Sydney Searchwell-Simpson is a spiritual activist, speaker, and performative storyteller whose work invites people into deeper relationship—within themselves, one another, the Earth, and the Sacred Mystery that holds us all. Drawing from her lived experience as a survivor, interfaith spiritual insights, Earth-centered practices and a love for Life, Sydney weaves intimate stories with systemic insight, helping audiences feel, remember, and imagine new ways of being. Whether guiding reflection on domination consciousness or playing characters in her performance art, Sydney's voice opens portals for regenerative possibilities through courageous truth-telling and a fierce love for Life.

What Sydney Offers

Keynote Talks & Speaking Engagements

Inspiring and grounding talks that bridge spirituality, cultural transformation, and collective healing—ideal for conferences, spiritual gatherings, social impact events, and leadership forums.

Performative Storytelling & Spoken Word

Mythic, poetic, and embodied performances that channel the voice of Life to awaken audiences to the Mother Wound, reconnect us to the Earth, and confront the narratives that sever us from our freedom, truth, and belonging—while revealing the radical possibilities of regeneration and return.

Workshops & Retreats

Interactive and embodied spaces centered on relational transformation, sacred memory, and healing from systems of harm. Available for community orgs, spiritual centers, and conscious institutions.

Podcast Conversations & Media Interviews

Warm, thoughtful dialogue on devotion, liberation, healing from violence, spiritual activism, and navigating the polycrisis with love and clarity.

Speaking Topic Samples

Relational (R)evolution: Repairing the Threads That Hold Us Together

An invitation to remember our interconnectedness— to self, others, Earth, and the Mystery—and how relational healing transforms the world.

Domination Consciousness: The Root of Our Problems, the Source of Our Healing

A deep look at the consciousness that forms systems of harm—and how we can dismantle it through embodied inner transformation into the truth we all share.

Becoming Another Way: How Healing Domestic & Sexual Violence Led Me to a Pathway for Collective Liberation

A personal and political story of healing as a gateway to cultural change, spiritual belonging, and sacred resistance.

What Sydney Brings

Sydney speaks with a grounded, poetic clarity that nourishes the soul while challenging the status quo. Her presence invites vulnerability, reverence, and transformation. Audiences leave with greater emotional wisdom, renewed courage, and a deeper sense of spiritual and systemic possibility.

Recent Features

🌐 "You Are Not Alone" - A Conversation with Sydney Searchwell-Simpson on Spirituality & Activism

🌐 "Useless" - an eco-artist spoken word performance

🌐 Ep. 102 - Sydney's Story | Hearing the Call & Trusting the Way to Freedom | Sacred Pathways

Contact – Available for in-person and virtual speaking, facilitation, and collaborative projects.

- Email: jivanmuktahealing@gmail.com
- Website: 🌐 Jivanmukta Healing | embodied spiritual liberation
- LinkedIn Profile
- 🌐 Sydney Searchwell-Simpson - Campus Outreach Services